

Home / News / News

5-YEAR REPRIEVE FACES TWO MORE PANEL HURDLES

CB council approves tax abatement for ORC

Current Conditions

Sponsored by:

Story Discussion

Font Size: - +

CLICK HERE for print ads online

By Alice Campbell, Staff Writer | Posted: Wednesday, September 22, 2010 11:00 am | (14) Comments

0 tweet

Recommend

Be the first of your friends to recommend this.

World Photo by Benjamin Brayfield A construction worker prepares beams Sept. 15 before they are set in place as part of the Oregon Resources Corporation processing plant.

Other actions

Council members also:

- Approved installing cedar posts along the Sawmill & Tribal Trail within city limits. Council also gave permission for the trail's advisory team to paint arrows on city sidewalks and place concrete markers in streets with no sidewalks.

"I think this team has done a wonderful job," councilwoman Stephanie Kramer said.

- Accepted bids for from Johnson Rock Products for $340,984 to repair and replace sewer lines at Wasson and Grant streets and at Eighth and Vine streets and from Billeter Marine for $224,871 to replace a wastewater treatment plant outfall and repair its diffuser near the U.S. Coast Guard dock at the east end of Koosbay Boulevard.

Job creation offsets the tax abatement, Mayor Jeff Mc full taxes.